

What's OPT?

OPT is a temporary employment authorization for international students who have completed their degree program in the U.S. and are currently on-campus. It allows students to gain practical work experience in their field of study. OPT is available for students who are currently on-campus and have completed their degree program in the U.S. It is a temporary employment authorization that allows students to gain practical work experience in their field of study. OPT is available for students who are currently on-campus and have completed their degree program in the U.S. It is a temporary employment authorization that allows students to gain practical work experience in their field of study.

How long can a student work on OPT?

12 months. OPT is available for students who are currently on-campus and have completed their degree program in the U.S. It is a temporary employment authorization that allows students to gain practical work experience in their field of study. OPT is available for students who are currently on-campus and have completed their degree program in the U.S. It is a temporary employment authorization that allows students to gain practical work experience in their field of study.

What happens after OPT ends for a student?

After OPT ends, students must either return to their home country or apply for a new visa to remain in the U.S. Students who do not return to their home country or apply for a new visa may be considered out of status. Students who do not return to their home country or apply for a new visa may be considered out of status. Students who do not return to their home country or apply for a new visa may be considered out of status.