

Committee on Educational Policies and Planning (CEPP)
2005-06 Annual Report

The membership of the Committee on Educational Policies and Planning (CEPP) for the 2005-06 academic year consisted of the following individuals.

Fall 2005

Molly Appel '07 Student representative

Beau Breslin, Government, faculty representative (05--06 term)

Deb Hall, Studio Art, faculty representative (05--06 term)

Dan Moran '07 student representative

Michael Mudrovic, Foreign Languages, faculty representative (05-06 replacement)

Pat Oles, Dean of Student Affairs, administration representative

Muriel Poston, Dean of Faculty, administrative representative

Gordon Thompson, Music, faculty representative (03 term)

Spring 2005

Molly Appel '07 Student representative

Beau Breslin, Government, faculty representative (05 term)

Deb Hall, Studio Art, faculty representative (05 term)

Matthew Hockenos, History, faculty representative (04 term)

Ruth Andrea Levinson, Education, faculty representative (04 term)

Dan Moran '07 student representative

Michael Mudrovic, Foreign Languages, faculty representative (05-06 replacement)

Pat Oles, Dean of Student Affairs, administration representative

Muriel Poston, Dean of Faculty, administrative representative

Gordon Thompson, Music, faculty representative (03 term)
at CEPP's homepage:

<http://www.skidmore.edu/academics/CEPP/index.html>

Links:

WTF recommendations

Academic Excellence and Rigor Statement
CEPP's response to Optimization
AP credits motion and rationale
Physical Activities Subcommittee final report

Shortterm Study Abroad Guidelines:

Criteria and Procedures

Expression of Intent

Proposal

Writing Requirement CEPP's Writing Task Force (WTF), chaired by Matthew Hockenos, met biweekly in fall 2005 and weekly in 2006. The charge of the task force was to gather feedback on the teaching ~~of~~ writing that would inform a future proposal,

DOF or VPAA on CEPP subcommittee consisted of two faculty representatives from CEPP (Beau